

Challenges of Politics and Democracy in a Digital Era

Palacio de Minería, April 4-5, 2019

Joseph Thompson

Executive Director—and legal representative—of the Inter-American Institute of Human Rights (IIDH) since 2013, having been re-elected in 2017. He majored in Law, with a minor in International Law (Universidad de Costa Rica; Università degli Studi di Perugia, Italy). He was Director of the Center for Advisory and Electoral Promotion (CAPEL), IIDH’s special program for the furtherance of democracy, political rights and elections, from 2000 to 2014, while jointly serving as IIDH’s Deputy Director from July 2009 to June 2013. Thompson is the author of articles, books and specialised researches on justice, democracy, electoral systems, human rights and international law.
