

Challenges of Politics and Democracy in a Digital Era

Palacio de Minería, April 4-5, 2019

María Marván Laborde

Chairperson of the Board of Directors of Transparencia Mexicana—the Mexican chapter of Transparency International—, and full-time researcher at Institute of Legal Research (IIJ) of the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM). Marván was the first female President Councillor of Mexico’s extinct Federal Electoral Institute (IFE), and is the founding President Commissioner of the also extinct Federal Access to Public Information Institute (IFAI). She specialises in politics, electoral matters, transparency, access to information, protection of personal data and democratic development in Mexico. She has been a professor at various Mexican universities, and has written several books and newspaper articles. She majored in Sociology at UNAM, and has a master’s and PhD from the New School for Social Research, New York.
